Synopsis

Jonathan is sure there are no bears on Hemlock Mountain. When he is given the task of going over the mountain to get a large pot for his mother, he reassures himself over and over: “THERE . . . ARE . . . NO . . . BEARS . . . ON . . . HEMLOCK . . . MOUNTAIN . . . NO . . . BEARS . . . NO . . . BEARS . . . AT . . . ALL.” But Jonathan dawdles at his Aunt’s house, enjoying cookies and a nap. Suddenly awakening, he realizes it is late, and he must now return over Hemlock Mountain—in the dark! “THERE . . . ARE . . . NO . . . BEARS . . . ON . . . HEMLOCK . . . MOUNTAIN . . . NO . . . BEARS . . . NO . . . BEARS . . . AT . . . ALL,” he repeats as he walks up over the mountain. But there are bears, and poor Jonathan meets them! Thinking quickly, Jonathan puts the iron pot upside down on the snow and hides under it. Frightened and alone, he can do nothing but wait for them to go away. While hiding under the pot, Jonathan realizes that he is not truly alone. When rescued by his father, he is proud to finish his task of bringing the pot to his mother in spite of his harrowing experience.

14. Read Psalm 103:12:

[A]s far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

According to this verse, when we ask for forgiveness, how far away has God taken our sins? If God forgives us completely, should we also forgive ourselves completely? Why or why not? _____
